

College of Charleston Spring 2017 Semester

Buenos Aires, Argentina

Dates: January to April 2017

Program Fee: $4,950

*Fee is estimated and does not include tuition

Program Description:

This program will offer students the opportunity to study in Buenos Aires, Argentina, and earn 12 to 15 hours of credit through the College of Charleston. Known as a dynamic urban cosmopolitan center of culture, business and modern life, Buenos Aires is the perfect setting for students desiring to hone their language skills and at the same time immerse themselves in the business and political culture of South America. Students will live with carefully selected Argentine families to provide an enriching cultural and social experience.

Classes are held at the Universidad de Buenos Aires School of Law and Social Sciences and are taught by local faculty selected and approved by the College of Charleston. Classes are conducted Monday through Friday, allowing weekends to explore Argentina or South America. Students will have easy access to all university facilities on the main campus.

This program is designed for students who are Spanish majors or minors, students who major or minor in Latin American and Caribbean Studies or International Studies, or students interested in developing fluency in Spanish. Students must have completed, or be in the process of completing, at least one 300 level Spanish course prior to participation. Students must have an overall GPA of 2.5.

The semester will coincide with the late winter and spring in the southern hemisphere, an ideal season to travel and enjoy a period of intense cultural activity.

Tentative Courses Offered (subject to change):
